

Cherrylee Pinder

BIOGRAPHY

Cherrylee Pinder is a seasoned consultant, speaker and trainer who, since 2005, has provided professional services to top executives, corporations and firms in The Bahamas. Through her company, CP Training & Consulting Services, Ms. Pinder has offered executive coaching, HR consultation and support services as well as soft skills training for teams, management and staff.

Catering to the needs of any organization, Cherrylee has served various industries including financial services, healthcare, insurance, tourism and hospitality, education and retail. As a local and international speaker, Cherrylee has addressed workplace topics that cover professionalism, effective communication, transitioning into management, leadership and conflict resolution.

Partnering across NGO and Government sectors, Ms. Pinder has expertly served as the lead facilitator of the National Certified Youth Leaders Program which is sponsored by The Bahamas' Ministry of Youth, Sports and Culture. This research-based program provides youth practitioners with the skills to identify and address issues with young people in various settings. The program has been offered face-to-face and virtually twice per year, yielding much success. Additionally, Cherrylee was pleased to have served as a consultant/developer for the BahamaHost program along with other private sector training programs in Hospitality/Tourism and Healthcare.

Ms. Pinder holds an Associates degree in Psychology with Sociology from the College of the Bahamas, a Bachelor's degree in Psychology with Sociology from Clark Atlanta University, in Atlanta Georgia and a Masters degree in Clinical Social Work, from Smith's College, North Hampton Massachusetts. She is a former adjunct lecturer at Omega College, where she taught classes such as Applied Educational Psychology, Introduction to Psychology, and Organizational Communication. Though currently on sabbatical, Cherrylee is a lifelong learner, she is actively involved in research and discovery projects.